

FRIDAY, 05 AUGUST

FRIDAY, 05 AUGUST
9:30-10:00	CONFERENCE REGISTRATION DESK OPEN
10:00-10:20	DAILY UPDATE
10:20-12:00	PARALLEL SESSIONS
Room 1	Politics of Sustainability and Environmental Protection The Politics of Preserving Urban Nature: A Case Study of Kaohsiung's Meinong Nature Park            Yu-Hsuan Lee, Department of International Affairs, Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages, Kaohsiung, Taiwan  Overview: Kaohsiung is the largest industrial city in Taiwan whose urban process hinges upon its nature. This study explores the politics of urban nature related to the Meinong Nature Park.  Theme: Environmental Studies Appraisal of Coastal Vulnerability to Climate Change            Komali Kantamaneni, School of Built and Natural Environment, Faculty of Applied Design and Engineering, University of Wales Trinity Saint David, Swansea, UK  Overview: This study analyses the methodological approaches of coastal vulnerability.  Theme: Environmental Studies The Attitude-Behavior Gap in Sustainable Tourism            Christina Toelkes, Munich University of Applied Sciences, Munich, Germany  Overview: The attitude-behavior gap in sustainable tourism introduces an under-researched field. This study discusses the results of focus group discussions revealing the drivers and barriers towards decision making in sustainable tourism.  Theme: Environmental Studies
Room 2	Regional Policies, International Relations, and Human Security The United Nations' Role in a Global System            Prof. Nizza Nachmias, Political Science, Towson University, Baltimore, USA  Overview: The UN was created to ensure the well-being and security of all people. The UN has been working diligently to achieve its goals. Why are the results not satisfactory?  Theme: Global Studies Correlation between Peace and Development            Memphis Viveros, Business Administration, Pontifical Bolivarian University, Palmira, Colombia  Overview: This study explores the correlation between peace and human development, by using statistical and econometric tools.  Theme: Social and Community Studies Representations of Security and Responses to Violence: Policing and Human Security in the Recent History of Itagüí, Colombia            Dr. Leon Arredondo, Department of Anthropology and Sociology, West Chester University, West Chester, USA            Luis Orlando Luján, Cultural Area, Diego Echavarría Misas Foundation, Itagüí, Colombia  Overview: This paper analyzes policy responses to violence in Itagüí, Colombia. We use the human security paradigm to examine the shortcomings of policies based on narrow understandings of security.  Theme: Social and Community Studies
Room 3	Organizational Diversity Management of Diversity in Military Organizations: A Case Study of the United States Air Force            Dr. Ismail Meriç, Administrative Sciences, Turkish Air Force Academy, Istanbul, Turkey  Overview: The concept of diversity is implemented in military institutions as well as civil institutions. Diversity increases mission readiness by supporting a team-oriented management approach in military organizations.  Theme: Organizational Studies Achieving Good Governance through Deliberative Democracy in Contemporary China            Zaijian Qian, Honors College, Research Center for Local Government and Governance Innovation, Nanjing Normal University, Nanjing, China  Overview: This paper discusses the path to promote good governance through deliberative democracy.  Theme: Civic and Political Studies Factors Affecting the Insurgency Movement in the Bangsamoro Provinces            Dr. Wilfred S. Manuela Jr., Leadership and Strategy Department, John Gokongwei School of Management, Ateneo de Manila University, Quezon City, Philippines            Manuel J. de Vera, Center for Development Management, Asian Institute of Management, Makati City, Philippines  Overview: This research examines the factors that influence the insurgency problem in the Bangsamoro provinces in Mindanao, Philippines.  Theme: Civic and Political Studies

